

PRESIDENTS

WHAT THEY SAID...

SURVIVAL

MR. JELF WILLIAMSON President 1974-75

“MONASA started out on a good note... Our first attempt at representing the clerical and technical staff was successful when in March 1974 we were able to secure a “Cost of Living Allowance” of two (2) increments from the University”.

Despite our early success, there were some who doubted that MONASA would survive

“As MONASA faces another decade with many challenges, each member must do his/her bit to ensure its continued success”.

“MONASA has, no doubt, succeeded in breaking down many barriers which existed among its members”.

Excerpts from the Past President's

1984 Message

WHAT THEY SAID...

SURVIVAL

MR. CEDRIC HAROLD President - 1975-77

“I have many wishes to share with you.. the first is, of course, that what we have started may go on forever”

“Members of MONASA” should mean both those who pay dues and those who do not. It is not the money – although that is useful – but the symbolic link in paying dues that is a measure of our unity”

“MONASA should actively pursue the goal of gaining full participative membership in Pay & Promotions Committee and should be instrumental in limiting the powers of academic staff on that Committee”

*Excerpts from the Past President's
1984 Message*

WHAT THEY SAID...

Mr. H.A. McLeod

“We can look to the future with confidence and with a will to fight for what is right”

“... more steps were taken – some were firm and forward, others proved frustrating...”

“The frustration led to some unpleasant and unfortunate events which at times rocked the moral fibre of our association”

“...The child grew older and more steps were taken”

Excerpts from the Past President's

MR. KENNETH GRANT
